

Summer P-EBT Update

For K-12 Students in School Year 2021-2022

The U.S. Department of Agriculture has authorized the Virginia Department of Social Services to provide Summer P-EBT to K-12 students.

All school-age children who attended a school approved to participate in the Community Eligibility Provision or were eligible to receive free or reduced-price meals during the 2021-2022 school year are eligible for Summer P-EBT.

There is no COVID-related absence, remote learning or reduced attendance requirement for Summer 2022 P-EBT eligibility.

All eligible students enrolled during the last month of school year 2021-2022, including new high school graduates, will receive their summer benefit on a previously issued P-EBT or SNAP EBT card.

Households can expect to receive a one-time, lump sum benefit of $391 per eligible student on August 25, 2022.
